7. Policy Action Statement Activity– Caitlin Hall

- a. Went over all Policy Action ideas with APD, on 10/3
- b. Small “p” Policy within organization
- c. Two directions:
 - i. Developing policy for APD to conduct business checks
 - ii. Incorporate alcohol laws into mandatory in-service trainings
- d. Presented Power Point
- e. Business checks – police might be able to walk into establishments and card people who “look underage” or whether the establishment is over capacity
- f. No precise nature of data recording planned yet
- g. No exact “checklist” for officers to use during business checks, yet
- h. What will Policy do? Support community conscience, a shift in perception at the community level; reduce under-age drinking, excessive/binge drinking, and alcohol related fatalities
- i. Will have to work closely with retailers; we are working hard to create relationships with business owners and we don’t want to make them feel like we’re the enemy; also might increase collaboration between PD and the community
- j. Note: Substances affect the brain, and therefore the stages of development

8. Red Ribbon Activity- Sarah Kampsen & Kayla Speigel

9. Opioid Misuse Prevention Taskforce Update- Izelle Van Zuylen
